

History

Magna Steyr over the years

1864

Josef und Franz Werndl & Comp., Waffenfabrik und Sägemühle (Arms Factory and Sawmill) is established in Oberletten near Steyr, Upper Austria.

1899

Johann Puch founds Johann Puch - Erste Steiermärkische Fahrrad-Fabriks-Aktiengesellschaft (First Styrian Bicycle Factory, Inc.).

1899

Eduard Bierenz, personal friend of Gottlieb Daimler, sets up Österreichische Daimler-Motoren-Gesellschaft Bierenz, Fischer & Co. in Wiener Neustadt.

1914

Johann Puch - Erste Steiermärkische Fahrrad-Fabriks AG changes its name to PUCHWERKE AG.

1923

Founding of the company Blau in Zschopau (Sachsen/Germany).

1926

In accordance with the resolution at the 1925 annual general meeting, Josef und Franz Werndl & Comp., Waffenfabrik und Sägemühle is renamed STEYR-WERKE AG and entered in the Vienna register of companies.

1928

March 31: The Österreichische Daimler-Motoren-Gesellschaft shareholders' meeting approves merger with Österreichischen Flugzeugfabrik AG, the Austro Daimler bodywork plant and with Puchwerke AG.

1928

May 21: Puchwerke AG shareholders' meeting approves merger with Österreichische Daimler-

Motoren AG.

1928

December 28: The new company, Austro Daimler Puchwerke Aktiengesellschaft, is entered in the Vienna register of companies.

1934

Steyr-Werke AG shareholders' meeting approves merger with Austro Daimler Puchwerke Aktiengesellschaft.

1935

The new Steyr-Daimler-Puch AG is entered in the Vienna register of companies.

1957

Frank Stronach founds the company Multimatic.

1969

Multimatic merges with Magna Electronics.

1988

Founding of Magna International Inc. Group Tesma.

1995

Tesma International Inc. acquires the Blau Group.

1998

Magna International Inc. acquires a majority holding in Steyr-Daimler-Puch AG.

2001

MAGNA STEYR AG & Co KG is founded.

2002

June 6: Resolution passed at the annual general meeting changing the name of Steyr-Daimler-Puch Fahrzeugtechnik AG & Co KG to MAGNA STEYR Fahrzeugtechnik AG & Co KG and STEYR Powertrain AG & Co KG to MAGNA STEYR Powertrain AG & Co KG.

2002

July 6: Magna Steyr takes over Eurostar.

2004

Magna Steyr's business unit Powertrain is hived off into the independent Magna Group Magna Drivetrain.

2005

Acquisition of the Fuel System Group from Tesma International Inc..

2010

Erhard & Söhne, a supplier of tank systems and compressed air tanks for commercial vehicles, is acquired by Magna Steyr.

2011

ACTS (Advanced Car Technology Systems) situated in Sailauf is integrated into Magna Steyr.